Executive Summary

DCJ's Human Resources (HR) Unit recruits, hires, trains and assists with the management of approximately 900 employees and volunteers. Departmental HR and training consultants work closely with both internal and external customers to design and deliver responsive programs and services. HR employees work with management and members of three different unions to develop and hold employees accountable. The Human Resources Unit directly supports the culture and mission of the department.

Program Description

The HR Unit supports 541 permanent and 150 temporary/on-call employees, 3 union contracts, and 24 hour operations in Juvenile Detention, Multnomah County Jail, and the community. A few highlights include:

- 1) Management of 205 volunteers who contributed more than $374,535 of time.
- 2) Assessment of the organizational needs of a diverse customer base in order to provide strategic direction; and succession and workforce planning, for the department through active participation on management teams.
- 3) Consultation to managers and employees on a wide range of complex employee and labor relation issues including performance management; discipline and grievances; recruitment and selection of a highly qualified and diverse workforce to serve the changing needs of County residents; leave administration; layoffs and bumping; and interpretation and compliance with County Personnel Rules, Department Work Rules, and union contracts.
- 4) Ensure compliance with all Federal, State, and local laws, rules, regulations, policies, and three labor agreements to reduce or eliminate liability and costs of unlawful employment actions.
- 5) Management of personnel records which included 130 leave requests and 1,014 personnel transactions in SAP.
- 6) Development and implementation of integrated human resources initiatives by partnering with Central Human Resources and Labor Relations.
- 7) Coordination of technical and professional training necessary to keep qualified employees and meet statutory requirements (11,594 hours of in-house staff development or 21.4 hrs per employee).

Program Justification

Human Resources supports the Departmental mission and DCJ's accountability to the public through hiring, training and evaluating competent staff. Public safety cannot be achieved without investing in both our community and our employees. By hiring the right people, giving them the tools they need to do their job, and supporting management performance, we can best meet our mission of changing behavior and keeping the community safe.
