

Program # 50023B - Juvenile Detention Services - 32 Beds

Version 2/17/2006 s

Priority: Safety Lead Agency: Community Justice

Program Offer Type: Existing Operating Program Contact: Tim Nacoste

Related Programs: 50014, 50019, 50021

Program Characteristics:

Executive Summary

Juvenile detention protects the public by removing male and female youth who are a public safety risk from the community and holding youth who may flee to avoid court proceedings. Detention is an essential resource for police, judges, and probation officers.

Program Description

In detention youth who are a safety risk are held in a secure and structured environment and provided with education, behavior change counseling and other programs that reduce community victimization. In 2004, 421 youth were detained. The facility has a 191-bed capacity. This offer would fund a 32 bed pod (two sixteen bed units): both units hold youth facing serious criminal (Measure 11) charges, pre-adjudicated youth who are public safety or flight risks, or youth who have violated probation or parole. Detention usage is based on collaborative agreements that involve the police, DA, judges, community groups and others.

Program Justification

As a result of collaborative agreements with community and justice partners, detention is used only when necessary and with maximum efficiency (focusing detention resources on highest risk youth has already reduced the need for 111 detention beds, saving over $2 million annually). This program offer would fund 32 beds, which in combination with the base offer would maintain detention's current 80 bed capacity. The current 80 beds are utilized at nearly a 100% rate, satisfying the need to detain our highest-risk youth. Reducing detention capacity would nullify agreements with judges, the DA, police, treatment providers and community members, and would push high-risk youth into less restrictive placements, jeopardizing public safety. Without these 32 beds, we would have to re-negotiate all the agreements upon which the County's nationally recognized juvenile justice system functions.

Performance Measure - Description

Data on youth who appear for hearing is obtained from annual report; current reporting data will be published in early summer 2006. This program offer assures CSL funding for detention and performance measures reflect total program totals. Output measures are not scaled because offers 50023A/50023B are necessary to operate the facility at current capacity. These measures reflect total number of detention episodes and youth detained when both offers are purchased.
