Executive Summary

This offer is for 57 hours, the current level of service; it would be purchased in conjunction with the base offer for the four regional libraries (Gresham, Hillsdale, Hollywood and Midland). Regional libraries are larger in size, have larger collections of books & other materials, and offer more services than the smaller neighborhood libraries. This program offer links to the Vibrant Community factors "valued and engaged citizens" and "opportunities for improving and enjoying life."

Program Description

Maintaining the current number of hours (57 open hours per week) would allow regional libraries to continue to provide current services including story times, after school activities, volunteer opportunities, homework help, access to public computers & computer classes, and various other programs for Multnomah County's diverse community.

Program Justification

This program offer links to Factor 2, Valued & Engaged Citizens and specifically to the strategy, "Provide places and promote opportunities for neighbors to connect" by adding 280 public programs to the base offer. With the current number of open hours, 118,000 more people can visit the regional libraries.

This offer also links to Factor 3, Opportunities for Improving & Enjoying Life ("Promote literacy and a lifetime of learning") by "provid[ing] opportunities & resources for lifelong learning." Library users have access to the book collections more hours per week and have 15,734 more hours of public computer availability (for a total of 209,783 hours). They also can get answers to about 27,000 more of their questions.

Maintaining current hours of service is critical during a year when voters are being asked to renew the levy, as they need to perceive that Multnomah County Library is keeping its promise during the current levy.
