Performance Measure - Description

 Measure Changed

Old Measures: Absence Rate; Timeliness of Recruitress Services; Employee Satisfaction.

New Measure: Percent of probationary employees completing all quarterly performance reviews is a success measure of the performance management system. The (new) Probationary Performance Review Program (PPR) requires quarterly performance reviews and is administered, c/o the DCM HR Team, to all new hires and promoted DCM employees who have a probationary period of up to one year. Higher percentage completion of reviews represents greater success in coaching, retaining, and screening out, when necessary, probationary employees.

New Measure: Customer Satisfaction – This measure reflects quality of DCM HR Team service delivery, to include recruitment and selection services, employee/labor relations consultations, and HR administrative services in support of the DCM department. Will be measured for first time in upcoming months, with periodic measures thereafter.
