Program Characteristics:

Executive Summary

Option B restores the services for CAT which was not included in the executive budget.

County-wide services provided by the Sheriff's Office not available from any other Law Enforcement agencies. This program provides for investigation of child abuse crimes (CAT) and the DVERT (Domestic Violence) Grant.

Program Description

The Countywide Investigation program funds the Sheriff's Office participation in several inter-agency teams. These teams are able to pool resources and leverage personnel for more effective results. The Child Abuse detective is part of a multi-disciplinary team approach to this significant piece supporting the safety of children in our community.

Program Justification

To provide intensive investigations to increase protection of children and community safety. A multi-disciplinary approach to sharing information optimizes resources.
