Executive Summary

Felony Trial Unit C prosecutes a variety of serious or high and medium level crimes including: Robberies, residential burglary, weapons, gang crimes, vehicular homicides and assaults, arson and felony animal abuse.

Program Description

This program works closely with federal, state and local law enforcement agencies to prosecute serious person and property crimes involving gangs, weapons, arson, animal abuse, robbery, residential burglary, assaults and crimes involving weapons. As an active member of the Youth Gun Anti-Violence task force (YGAT), the program works cooperatively with the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms and the Portland Police Bureau and the US Attorney's Office to reduce or eliminate illegal possession and transfer of firearms and has been involved in hundreds of state and federal prosecutions. The Gang unit works cooperatively with state and local law enforcement agencies and communities to target and reduce the instance of gang related crime through aggressive enforcement and prosecution.

Program Justification

In the continuum of prosecution services, this unit prosecutes high and medium level offenders and is key to making sure that offenders are held accountable for their criminal behavior. The program, through its inter-agency cooperation, collaboration, and prosecution efforts, is a key part of holding offenders accountable for committing serious person and property crimes, and for engaging other community partners in reducing gang related violence and illegal activities in the schools and neighborhoods.
