Program Characteristics:

Executive Summary

The pre-trial unit represents and/or coordinates judicial appeal cases for the District Attorney's office, civil litigations, post conviction relief, felony arraignments, coordinates extraditions and transport of material witnesses, post conviction expungements and provides Grand Jury administration.

Program Description

This program provides a variety of important functions within the District Attorney's office including felony arraignment court appearances, civil litigations, post conviction relief and appeals. The program also provides administration for the Grand Jury which meets to review evidence on felony criminal cases to determine if an indictment should be issued. For those people convicted of crimes who qualify, this program provides a process for the expungement of records. The program also processes cases involving fugitives who have been arrested in Multnomah County on outstanding warrants from other states or jurisdictions.

Program Justification

The program works in cooperation with law enforcement agencies, state courts, State Department of Justice in prosecuting and holding high, medium and low level felony offenders accountable for crimes committed in Multnomah County by processing cases involving fugitives who have been arrested and returned to the County for trial. The program works, through citizen involvement in the Grand Jury system, to indite persons involved in felony crimes.
