Executive Summary

The Corrections Division Classification Unit interviews every inmate coming into the system, determines and maintains appropriate housing, and ensures staff and inmate safety.

Program Description

The Classification Unit is responsible for maintaining the system of placing inmates in appropriate areas of the system. This system is based on the behavior of the inmate. Holding inmates accountable while under the Sheriff's supervision creates incentives for inmates to cooperate while in custody and maintains a safe work environment for employees and detainees.

While we have shifted to housing more inmates in individual housing areas as a more cost-effective means, it is essential we have the appropriate inmates assigned to the various areas. Inmate disciplinary hearings are an important part of this system and also managed by this Unit.

Program Justification

Appropriate placement of inmates in the corrections system is essential to the safe, efficient operation of our jail network. The process is structured such that cooperation has positive impact while non-participation results in reassignment to a more restrictive program. This process helps to identify inmates who are willing to constructively participate in a wider range of programs meant to aid the inmate in building positive life-skills and less risk to the community.
