Program Characteristics:

Executive Summary

The Adult Parole/Post Prison Violation Hearings and Local Control (LC) unit provides legally mandated supervision to over 1500 felons annually who have been sentenced to 12 months jail or less (referred to as Local Control offenders); administers parole hearings for offenders alleged to be in violation of their supervision and imposes sanctions when violations are found. The combined efforts of timely hearings and alternative custody sanctions to jail averts the use of 35,000 jail bed days each year.

Program Description

The Local Control (LC) unit supervises offenders who are sentenced to a prison sentence of 12 months or less and serve their sentence in a local jail. Working with the Sheriff's Office, LC has the legal authority to issue arrest warrants and has jurisdiction over the supervision conditions for these offenders. LC staff develop release plans, monitor offenders from jail to community based sanctions (such as drug and alcohol treatment programs) and supervise and transfer offenders to community superivision (parole) upon the completion of their incarceration. LC also provides notification to known victims when an offender leaves jail.

Oregon Administrative Rule and Oregon Revised Statutes mandate violation hearings for Post Prison/Parole offenders to determine if a violation of their supervision has occurred. Hearings Officers (HOs) conduct local parole hearings and administer consequences once an offender has been found in violation of supervision. HOs are able to order jail releases, recommend revocation of offenders to prison and/or make other recommendations to releasing authorities that are consistant with evidence based practices (Andrews, 1994).

This program offer also includes the operating costs of the Mead Building.

Program Justification

The LC and Hearings Unit is strongly linked to safety and is instrumental in holding offenders accountable by providing fair and objective investigations, parole hearings, incarcerating offenders when appropriate and actively supervising offenders with practices that research has shown to reduce future recidivism (Andrews, 1994).

Through collaboration with the Sheriff's Office, treatment providers and the community, this unit provides effective interventions and helps to ensure the local justice system operates efficiently.
