Executive Summary

Restitution means repayment of economic damages caused by a crime. However, for many victims of crime it can also mean accountability for the actions of the defendant and generally can affect the victims' view of justice. A victim of crime has the right to be informed. Victims have a right to prompt restitution for crime-related costs. This program offer would add a Restitution Clerk position to the Victims Assistance program.

Program Description

Restitution means repayment of economic damages caused by a crime. However, for many victims of crime it can also mean accountability for the actions of the defendant and generally can affect the victims' view of justice. A victim of crime has the right to be informed. Victims have a right to prompt restitution for crime-related costs.

Restitution Clerk shall investigate evidence of the nature and amount of the damages suffered by victims of crime. Review and implement Secretary of State Audit Report, current procedures and propose alternate methods to improve collection and/or tracking of restitution information.

The Clerk shall receive and process all restitution requests from DOJ/CVC, Circuit Court and victims. Forms from victims are reviewed for completeness and when necessary contact is made to clarify or request additional needed information.

Receive all returned (unable to deliver) restitution forms and attempt contact with victim via telephone.

Case files set-over for restitution hearings will be sent to Restitution Clerk who will track these cases and follow up to resolve individual issues.
