Executive Summary

The Department of Community Justice (DCJ) Human Resources (HR) unit recruits, hires, trains and assists with the management of nearly 650 permanent, on-call and temporary employees. DCJ HR and training consultants work closely with both internal and external customers to design responsive programs and services. HR staff work with management and members of three different unions to hold employees accountable. The HR unit directly supports the culture and mission of the Department.

Program Description

The HR unit supports 650 permanent, on-call and temporary employees; 3 union contracts; and 24-hour operations in Juvenile Detention, the Multnomah County Justice Center and the community. HR will continue to:

- 1) Assess diverse organizational and customer (employee) needs to provide strategic direction as well as succession and workforce planning through active participation on management teams;
- 2) Consult with managers and employees about employee and labor relations issues, including performance management, discipline and grievances, recruitment and selection of a highly qualified and diverse workforce, leave administration, layoffs and bumping, and compliance with County Personnel Rules, Department Work Rules, and union contracts;
- 3) Ensure compliance with all laws, rules, regulations, policies and labor agreements so liability and costs of unlawful employment actions are reduced or eliminated;
- 4) Manage the recruitment and selection process, leave administration, discipline and grievance process, layoffs and bumping, and personnel records;
- 5) Manage 191 leave requests and 887 personnel transactions in SAP;
- 6) Develop and implement HR initiatives with Central Human Resources and Labor Relations; and
- 7) Complete 324 background investigations / records checks on DCJ employees, volunteers and interns.

DCJ's HR unit supports the Department's mission and accountability to the public through hiring, training and evaluating competent staff. By hiring qualified people, giving them the tools they need to do their job and supporting management performance, the Department is able to continue changing offender behavior and keeping the community safe.
