Executive Summary

Juvenile detention alternatives in the form of short-term shelter and residential placements protect the public by safely supervising identified high risk youth in the community. Many of these youth are Latino and African American juvenile offenders. By placing these youth in culturally appropriate placements (short-term shelter care or treatment foster care), the disproportionate confinement of minority youth drops significantly. Juvenile shelter and residential placements save the County significant funding each year while ensuring public protection.

Program Description

Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 419C.145 defines the circumstances under which a juvenile offender may be placed in custody including but not limited to: a felony crime, history of warrants for failure to appear in court, violation of probation or conditions of release, possession of a firearm and certain person misdemeanors. This statute also mandates that these youth may be released to a parent, shelter or other responsible party unless their release endangers the welfare of the community or the youth, and/or there is no other way to ensure they will come to court other than to detain them. In FY 2010, shelter and residential placements served approximately 135 high risk youth 12-18 years old. While in care, these youth attend school, participate in treatment and work with an assigned juvenile probation officer.
