Executive Summary

The Day Reporting Center (DRC) is a cost-effective public safety program that holds high risk, violent, mentally ill and drug addicted adult probation and parole violators accountable for their actions. DRC provides intensive case management and counseling, educational and cognitive behavioral skill-based programming through individual sessions and group processes, plus a motivational enhancement group (otherwise known as FOR curriculum - Focus on Re-entry) and employment services. DRC is an alternative consequence to jail or other custody sanctions used to address supervision violations. The existence of this program allows jail beds to be available for more serious offenders.

Program Description

DRC is a nonresidential sanction and skill building program for adult offenders. The program works with high and medium risk offenders who have been released from incarceration or who have been sanctioned to the program by their Parole/Probation Officer (PPO) due to supervision violations. Offenders in this program receive services designed to address challenging life circumstances - addiction and mental issues, criminal thinking and attitudes, inadequate work skills and lack of stability and/or pro-social support.

DRC promotes public safety by implementing evidence-based programs which research shows reduces offender arrests, decreases drug use and increases employment (Rhyne and Hamblin 2010). In FY 2010, DRC served 2,436 clients. PPOs rely on DRC as a non-jail sanction option. When compared to the cost of jail beds, DRC is significantly more cost effective. The daily cost per client in DRC is $26.75, as compared $178 per client per day in jail.
