Executive Summary

Community Court is sponsored by the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office. Police officers cite people accused of misdemeanors and violations directly to the Community Court. Most non-violent, non person-to-person misdemeanors and violations are eligible to remain in Community Court for final resolution, which includes social service referrals, a community service sentence, and dismissal of most charges on the first case. These offenders do not have a Parole/Probation Officer (PPO) but report directly to the sentencing judge. The Department of Community Justice provides one Corrections Technician (CT) to support Community Court.

Program Description

Community Court is a collaborative program staffed by the District Attorney's Office, the Circuit Court, Multnomah County Human Services, DCJ, Portland Business Alliance, Oregon Indigent Defense Services, Sheriff's Office, Portland State University and Portland Community College. Offenders sentenced to Community Court are typically cited on non person-to-person misdemeanors and violations. A typical Community Court sanction includes 1 to 5 days of community service and may include a social service mandate as well. The community services sanctions are overseen by DCJ's Adult Community Service program. Most first-time cases sent through Community Court are dismissed if the defendant successfully completes the Community Court sanction.
