Executive Summary

The Re-entry Resource Center provides a one stop transition and re-entry site for offenders released from jail or prison. Program goals include reducing new crimes and increasing employment and stable housing for offenders at high risk to re-offend.

The Oregon Criminal Justice Commission provided grant funding in 2010 to establish one-stop transition and reentry centers in three counties in Oregon. This grant has now ended; however, the program has been evaluated by Portland State University and has been found to be successful and cost-effective. The treatment group showed a 25% drop in arrests for statutory crimes. The study also showed that for every dollar invested in the program, a benefit of $14.17 is realized in savings from the criminal justice system and avoided victimization. This offer continues funding for this evidence-based program.

Program Description

The center provides one stop services including individualized assessment and action planning; service coordination; employment and housing assistance; assistance in applying for benefits; clothing; mailbox, fax and phone; computer access with support and tutoring; tutoring in math, English, and personal finance; resume writing; mentoring; bus passes; identification services; and coordination with probation and parole officers. System navigators work with clients to determine needs and make referrals to over 20 partner service agencies in the community.
