Executive Summary

This program provides specific and dedicated resources designed to enable those with mental illness to live safely and productively within the community. The mental health deputy district attorney is the DA coordinator for the Multnomah County Mental Health Court. The mental health deputy district attorney also participates in civil commitment hearings 4 days per week and attends weekly mental health court appearances. The mental health attorney meets weekly with the Behavioral Health Unit of the Portland Police Bureau and supervisors from Multnomah County Mental Health and Addiction Services Division to address potential solutions regarding individuals in the community who suffer from a mental illness and present a public safety concern.

Program Description

The mental health deputy district attorney is the DA coordinator for the Multnomah County Mental Health Court which is a specialized treatment court, designed to reduce criminal activity committed by persons suffering from a qualifying mental health diagnosis. The court is a cooperative effort among multiple agencies, including the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office, Multnomah County Circuit Court, Multnomah County Mental Health Department, Metropolitan Public Defender, Multnomah County Department of Community Justice, and the Multnomah County Sheriff's Office. Mental Health Court participants are on probation; both supervised (formal probation) and unsupervised (bench probation). As a condition of the probation, defendants are offered an opportunity to participate in the Mental Health Court program. Once accepted into Mental Health Court, the participant is assigned to a Mental Health Court Monitor. The monitor works with the participant on issues such as housing, medication management, health care appointments, and transportation. Participants are expected to stay free of drugs and alcohol, to meet regularly with their assigned monitor, to take all prescribed medication, pay restitution to victims, keep all appointments with service providers, and obey all laws. It takes a minimum of one year to complete Mental Health Court. The mental health attorney staffs the weekly mental health court appearances and works closely with Multnomah County Mental Health and Addiction Services Division, the defense bar, the Judge, and a probation officer to manage the participants.

The mental health deputy district attorney works closely with the Involuntary Commitment Program of Multnomah County Mental Health Division to civilly commit allegedly mentally ill persons who pose a danger to self or others, or are unable to provide for their basic personal needs. The mental health attorney calls witnesses and participates in civil commitment hearings 4 days per week. These commitment hearings take place at the courthouse and at local hospitals.

The mental health attorney meets weekly with the Behavioral Health Unit of the Portland Police Bureau and supervisors from Multnomah County Mental Health and Addiction Services Division. This collaborative effort is designed to address potential solutions regarding individuals in the community who suffer from a mental illness and present an active or ongoing public safety concern.
