Executive Summary

The Adult Community Service program (CS) for Bench Probation assists the courts in promoting public safety by helping offenders who are supervised directly by a judge. In addition to monitoring the work hours of bench probation clients, CS staff work with individuals participating in Project Clean Slate (PCS). PCS converts outstanding financial obligations for minor criminal and/or civil matters to community service work. The CS office interviews PCS participants, assigns them to a community service project, supervises the work, maintains a file for each case and reports back to the Court regarding each participant's compliance.

Program Description

CS for Bench Probation provides direct visibility of offenders as they restore the damage done to the community as a result of criminal actions. These offenders do not have a Parole/Probation Officer (PPO) but report directly to the sentencing judge. CS is responsible for coordinating community service work sites at public and non-profit agency locations, supervising each offender's community service and providing offender status reports to the Courts. Data reports show community sanctions reduce recidivism and enhance public safety (Oregon Department of Corrections 2002).

In partnership, CS and PCS helps clear outstanding warrants and court obligations that often impede an individual's ability to find stable housing, employment and/or financial assistance.

CS exemplifies cost-efficient cooperation and collaboration between the criminal justice system and public/private agencies by providing a cost savings equivalent to 4,800 jail bed days per year. Court ordered CS has also generated over 185,000 dollars of unpaid work benefiting the community in FY 2012.
